A good way to approach an essay is to envision it as a five part project.
An essay is made up of (1) the introduction, (2) three or more main points (the body), and (3) the conclusion. It might follow this format:
    - Introduction
    - Point One
    - Point Two
    - Point Three
    - Conclusion
  - B. Section II: List any community service, awards, and recognitions you received throughout grades 9 through 12. Awards might be monetary rewards or plaques, pins, and certificates for outstanding performance. Recognitions might be your name in the school or community newspaper for participation in a national, school or community activity or school announcements of such participations.
  - C. Section III: Present a minimum of two Letters of Recommendation – one from an adult school representative and one from a community member who has worked with you or witnessed your contribution to the community. Please ask the writer to be specific about your accomplishments to this organization.
A school representative might be your school counselor, the school principal, or a teacher. A community member might be your church minister or the president of an organization such as Lions Club or Kiwanis Club.
